

To the Supermarket

Read the entire dialogue with the students. Then have the students work in pairs and read the dialogue together, each taking on a character. Fill in the blanks using the words from the word box.

CHILD: _____ are you going, Mum?

MUM: I am going to the _____ .

CHILD: Oh, can I go with you?

MUM: You have some _____ , don't you?

CHILD: Yes, but not a lot.

MUM: Well, when will you _____ your homework?

CHILD: I can do it _____ we come back from the supermarket.

MUM: How much time do you need for the homework?

CHILD: Well, I think about 30 _____ , it is easy.

MUM: OK, listen. First, you do your homework and _____ we can go to the supermarket. I can wait 30 minutes.

CHILD: Oh, that is a good _____ . Now, where are my books and pencils?

..... 30 minutes later

MUM: How is the homework? Do you need any _____ ?

CHILD: No, Mum, just a few minutes more and we can go.

MUM: I have a _____ of the things we need from the supermarket. We need bread, _____ , cheese, eggs, meat, vegetables and fruit.

CHILD: Can I have something _____ !

MUM: What would you like?

CHILD: Ice cream! I love chocolate, vanilla and mango _____ . Mango is my favourite.

MUM: That is _____ ice cream.

CHILD: I know, _____ I really like ice cream.

MUM: OK, let's go, please bring the shopping _____ .

CHILD: Here they are, I am _____ .

MUM: Me too.

.....At the supermarket.....

CHILD: Is this a _____ supermarket, Mum?

MUM: Yes, it looks good. Give me the _____ list.

CHILD: The shopping list? I _____ have it!

MUM: Oh no! It is on the _____ at home! Now, what is on the list?

CHILD: Ice cream, ice cream!

*I SCREAM, YOU SCREAM,
WE ALL SCREAM FOR ICE CREAM*

a lot of - after - as well - bags - but - do - don't - help - homework - ice cream - idea - list - milk - minutes - new - ready - shopping - supermarket - table - then - where

To the Supermarket

Teachers' Answer Page

CHILD: Where are you going, Mum?

MUM: I am going to the supermarket.

CHILD: Oh, can I go with you?

MUM: You have some homework, don't you?

CHILD: Yes, but not a lot.

MUM: Well, when will you do your homework?

CHILD: I can do it after we come back from the supermarket.

MUM: How much time do you need for the homework?

CHILD: Well, I think about 30 minutes, it is easy.

MUM: OK, listen. First, you do your homework and then we can go to the supermarket. I can wait 30 minutes.

CHILD: Oh, that is a good idea. Now, where are my books and pencils?

..... After 30 minutes.....

MUM: How is the homework? Do you need help?

CHILD: No, Mum, just a few minutes more and we can go.

MUM: I have a list of the things we need from the supermarket. We need bread, milk, cheese, eggs, meat, vegetables and fruit.

CHILD: Can I have something as well!

MUM: What would you like?

CHILD: Ice cream! I love chocolate, vanilla and mango ice cream. Mango is my favourite.

MUM: That is a lot of ice cream.

CHILD: I know, but I really like ice cream.

MUM: OK, let's go, please bring the shopping bags.

CHILD: Here they are, I am ready.

MUM: Me too.

..... At the supermarket.....

CHILD: Is this a new supermarket, Mum?

MUM: Yes, it looks good. Give me the shopping list.

CHILD: The shopping list? I don't have it!

MUM: Oh no! It is on the table at home! Now, what is on the list?

CHILD: Ice cream, ice cream!

I SCREAM, YOU SCREAM,
WE ALL SCREAM FOR ICE CREAM